PARTICIPATION

The Conference provides an opportunity for a diverse range of people to discuss issues of relevance for today's urban Indigenous population, including community members and organizations, Traditional Owners, policy makers, service and industry providers, government agencies, consultants, academics and researchers.

Please contact the conference conveners with your proposals for participation.

Abstracts for sessions, papers, panels, forums or other discussion formats are all welcome.

Deadline: 25 March

WORKSHOPS AND TRADE STALLS

The conference, which runs from Tuesday 29 September to Thursday 1 October, provides an opportunity for participants to hold workshops on the Monday 28 September and/or Friday 2 October. Trade stalls, exhibitions and poster displays are also invited. Please contact us to discuss your interests and requirements.
